Re: DeFranco v. Wolfe, et al., No. 04-230-E--LETTER BRIEF
MOTION FOR PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS AND EXTENDED TIME

Dear Judge Baxter:

I am writing in regards to the defendants' Response Brief that was due on November 15, 2006. This date I telephoned the Clerk's Office and spoke with Deputy Clerk "Debbie" and she informed me that the defendants had submitted a Response Brief on November 15, 2006 (Doc.# 243 & 244). However, they did not serve a copy upon me. I alerted the clerk (Debbie) to this fact this date.

Would you please issue an Order directing the Clerk to provide me a copy of these Documents and note for the record that I have not been served and the time for filing a Reply Brief extended. While I currently have a Motion for Extension of Time pending (Doc. 245), I will obviously need more time due to this matter. Today is November 20, 2006, and your Order and the time extension is asked to reflect this incident. I appreciate your time and fairness in this matter. Please issue an Order giving me 30 days to file my Reply brief after the Clerk sends me a copy of these documents.

Very truly yours,

Anthony DeFranco
